

JCC Trip to the
New Jersey Performing Arts Center
in Newark to experience

GERSHWIN'S Rhapsody in Blue and STRAVINSKY'S Firebird

Performed by the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra

Classical, jazz and folk collide!

Acclaimed jazz pianist Aaron Diehl offers a fresh improvisational take on Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue, while Stravinsky's The Firebird brings a Russian legend to life.

We'll enjoy a delicious BRUNCH prepared by Nona at the JCC prior to going to the concert.

JOSHUA WEILERSTEIN conductor
AARON DIEHL piano

Our grant from the Sephardic Home Foundation gives priority to those adults who are unable to attend this performance on their own. If you believe this describes you, you must register by October 16, 2018. After this, available seats will be open to all until October 30, 2018.

This program is offered through a grant from the Sephardic Home for the Aged Foundation

Sephardic Home for the Aged Foundation

DATE: THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 2018
TIME: BRUNCH at the JCC at 11:00 AM
Bus leaves JCC at 12:00 noon; Returns approx. 5:00 PM
COST: $36/ JCCMC Member; $46/ Non-member (includes transportation, orchestra seats, brunch and tip) Sorry, no refunds

Jewish Community Center of Middlesex County
1775 Oak Tree Road
Edison, New Jersey 08820
732-494-3232