Wednesday, March 7, 2018: “Social Security.” Originally enacted by President Franklin Delano Roosevelt in 1935 as part of the New Deal, the Social Security system now faces economic and demographic challenges. In your own experience, has the Social Security system performed as promised? What, if anything, has not worked properly? Did you have any challenges in signing up for Social Security or dealing with the Social Security office? What changes could be made to improve the system?

Wednesday, March 14, 2018: “Planned Parenthood.” The Trump Administration has begun the process of cutting off funding to Planned Parenthood and other organizations that provide abortions and other women's health services. While abortion still remains legal under the “Roe vs. Wade” Supreme Court decision, who should pay for abortions? The individual woman? Insurance companies? Medicaid? Other federal programs? If a woman is too poor to pay for an abortion, what are her options? We will discuss.

Wednesday, March 21, 2018: “Duck and Cover: Cold War Memories!” On January 13, 2018, Hawaii experienced emergency alerts warning of an imminent missile strike from North Korea. People panicked and sought shelter in basements and old fallout shelters – some of which were built during the Cold War with the Soviet Union. The missile alert was an error, but the panic was real. What are your early memories of learning about nuclear weapons? What are your memories of the Cold War era? Did you fear a Communist takeover of America? Did you practice ducking and covering? Are we closer to nuclear war now or then? Should we be building fallout shelters again?

Wednesday, March 28, 2018: “Current Events Update.” We will discuss any updates in the Robert Mueller investigation into the Trump Administration's alleged obstruction of justice and ties to Vladimir Putin and Russia.
